“This Grant VA Program opened the door to meaningful and profitable employment that enabled me to be flexible enough to still put my family first. I had my first client before I even finished the class!” ~Janet Cushman, Grant VA

Make a Second Income Helping Nonprofits Thrive from Home – No Degree Required

Since 1997, the Grants Academy has trained thousands of professionals nationwide in proven, real-world grant writing resulting in $1.2 Billion in its first 2.5 years. Now, this cutting-edge training is available online for the first time – with six interactive modules, personalized feedback, and hands-on deliverables you can show to clients or employers.

What You’ll Learn (6 Modules)

1. Getting Started & Infrastructure – Set up your professional systems, from your email signature and timesheet to your “What’s a Grant VA?” elevator pitch.
2. Grant VA Roles & Textbooks – Learn the foundation of successful grants with Dream-Making to Billions and Program Planning & Proposal Writing.
3. Winning Proposal Formats – Master the world’s most widely used grant format, rate sample proposals, and craft your own competitive application.
4. Funder Research Made Simple – Discover government, foundation, and corporate funders – and how to “reverse-engineer” winners using Form 990s.
5. Becoming Grant Ready – Use the Grant Ready Challenge to organize your nonprofit’s materials and build a portfolio that impresses funders.
6. Marketing & Clients – Package your new skills, close the deal with clients, and explore paid internship or subcontracting opportunities.

Perfect For

- Homeschool moms seeking flexible, meaningful work from home
- Nonprofit professionals building internal grant capacity
- New or aspiring grant writers who want hands-on, portfolio-based training

“Thank you for your invaluable contribution to IONS, an investment that has improved IONS online presence, will lead to increased funding through increased transparency, as well as improved IONS’ preparedness for responding to new funding opportunities.” ~Cassandra Vieten, President and CEO, Institute of Noetic Sciences (IONS)

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Do I have to be trained as a Virtual Assistant (VA) first?

No prior VA experience is required. The Grant VA Program teaches both virtual assistant skills and grant skills step-by-step – even if you’re brand new to the field.

What is the length of the Grant Virtual Assistant (VA) online program?

The program is self-paced and designed to be completed in as few as two weeks, though many participants spread it out over four to six weeks while balancing family or work.

What will I learn in the Grant VA online class – and from whom?

You’ll learn from Phil Johncock, MA, MMs, GPC, who is Grant Professional Certified (GPC), Best-Selling Udemy Instructor and Amazon Author, with over 40 years of real-world success helping nonprofits secure funding and 35 books authored.

The six-module video series covers:

1. Setting up your systems & professionalism
2. Grant writing basics & proposal formats
3. Researching funders
4. Becoming “grant ready”
5. Marketing your new skills
6. Working with clients

Why is it called “Grant VA”?

Because you’ll become a Grant Virtual Assistant – a remote professional who helps nonprofits with grant readiness, research, and writing from anywhere in the world.

Do I have to have written a grant proposal before?

Not at all. You’ll write your first mock proposal during the program using guided templates and instructor feedback.

Will I be able to write a successful grant proposal after completing the class?

Yes – you’ll gain both the skills and portfolio to confidently assist or lead future proposals for real clients or organizations.

Are textbooks included in the cost of the Grant VA class?

Yes. You’ll receive two hard-to-find paperback textbooks mailed to you:

- Dream-Making to Billions
- Program Planning & Proposal Writing
