Dear Astrology Lover,

In astrology, the four elements, Fire, Earth, Air, and Water, represent different qualities within us and ways we engage with life.

Fire speaks to our passion, courage, and drive. Earth to our groundedness, patience, and ability to bring things into form. Air to our thoughts, curiosity, and perspective. And Water to our feelings, intuition, and receptivity.

We all carry these qualities within us, but in our own unique combination.

Some may come very naturally to you, while others may feel less familiar or accessible. But balance doesn't mean having equal amounts of everything. It's about developing a relationship with all four elements, so you can recognize and draw upon the qualities you need at different moments in your life.

This guide will help you discover your unique Elemental Signature using the placements in your birth chart. You'll see which elements are most strongly represented, which are less emphasized, and begin exploring how they show up in your life.

Then, as you move through each elemental practice, I invite you to notice:

Which feels like home? Which feels less familiar? And which awakens something new within you?

May this guide deepen your relationship with all four elements and help you call upon their unique gifts whenever you need them.

With love,

Amanda

Overview of
THE FOUR ELEMENTS

FIRE

ARIES · LEO · SAGITTARIUS

Inspiration · Passion · Courage · Vitality · Creativity · Desire · Action

Fire is the spark that moves us toward life. It fuels our enthusiasm, creativity, confidence, and willingness to act. Fire inspires us to follow what excites us, take courageous steps into the unknown, and bring our unique light into the world.

When we have healthy access to Fire, we may feel energized, purposeful, courageous, creative, and ready to take action. When Fire becomes excessive, that same energy can show up as impatience, reactivity, aggression, or burnout.

Fire asks: What wants to come alive through me?

EARTH

TAURUS · VIRGO · CAPRICORN

Grounding · Form · Patience · Cultivation · Consistency · Embodiment

Earth connects us to the physical world: our bodies, our resources, and the ground beneath our feet. It helps us take something that begins as an idea, longing, or possibility and give it form through patience, care, attention, and practical action.

When we have healthy access to Earth, we may feel grounded, steady, patient, supported, and capable of tending what matters over time. Earth reminds us that meaningful things often grow slowly and that our dreams need both our participation and our patience.

Earth asks: What am I ready to cultivate?

AIR

GAMINI · LIBRA · AQUARIUS

Ideas · Curiosity · Perspective · Communication · Connection · Possibility

Air is associated with the mind, ideas, information, communication, and our ability to see from different perspectives. Like the wind, Air creates movement and space, helping us loosen our grip on what has been and become curious about what else might be possible.

When we have healthy access to Air, we can take in new information, communicate, change our minds, consider different perspectives, and imagine new possibilities. Air reminds us that sometimes we need a little space before clarity can arrive.

Air asks: How am I connecting to and relating with the world around me?

WATER

CANCER · SCORPIO · PISCES

Feeling · Intuition · Receptivity · Compassion · Trust · Flow

Water connects us with our emotional and intuitive ways of knowing. It represents our capacity to feel deeply, listen inwardly, respond to what we sense, and trust what we may know even before we can logically explain it.

When we have healthy access to Water, we can feel, soften, receive, trust our intuition, and move with life as it unfolds. Like a river finding its way around an obstacle, Water reminds us that we don't always need to see the entire path in order to trust the next step.

Water asks: What becomes clear when I trust what I feel?

None of these elements is better or more desirable than another. Each offers something essential.

As you discover how strongly each is represented in your birth chart, remember that your Elemental Signature isn't about putting yourself into a box. It's a way to recognize the qualities that may come most naturally to you while deepening your relationship with the full spectrum of Fire, Earth, Air, and Water.

Calculate your
ELEMENTAL MAKEUP

You do not need astrology software or any previous astrology experience to calculate your Elemental Signature.

All you need is a list of your birth chart placements showing which zodiac sign each planet was in when you were born.

If you already know your Sun, Moon, Rising Sign, and planetary placements, you're ready to begin. If you don't, click here to generate your birth chart placements.

Once you have them, follow these steps.

Step 1 GATHER YOUR PLACEMENTS

For this calculation, you'll need:

- Sun
- Moon
- Ascendant / Rising Sign
- Midheaven / MC
- Mercury
- Venus
- Mars
- Jupiter
- Saturn
- Uranus
- Neptune
- Pluto

You do not need to include your lunar nodes, asteroids, or any other placements.

Step 2

MATCH SIGN & ELEMENT

Each zodiac sign belongs to one of the four elements:

FIRE

Aries · Leo · Sagittarius

EARTH

Taurus · Virgo · Capricorn

AIR

Gemini · Libra · Aquarius

WATER

Cancer · Scorpio · Pisces

Now, look at the sign of each placement in your chart and identify its element.

For example:

- Sun in Leo = Fire
- Moon in Pisces = Water
- Rising Sign in Taurus = Earth
- Mercury in Gemini = Air

Step 3 WEIGHT YOUR PLACEMENTS

Not every placement is weighted equally in this method.

Your Sun, Moon, Ascendant,
and Midheaven each receive:
2 points

Every other planet receives:
1 point

So, for example:

- Sun in Leo = 2 Fire points
- Moon in Pisces = 2 Water points
- Taurus Rising = 2 Earth points
- Mercury in Gemini = 1 Air point

Continue through your entire list, assigning the correct number of points to the element associated with each placement.

We've included sheets on the next pages to help you.

♄	SATURN

Step 4 CALCULATE YOUR POINTS

Once you've scored every placement, add the points in each element.

	 FIRE	 EARTH	 AIR	 WATER
SUM

When you're finished, you should have no more than 16 points total when you combine all 4 elements.

If they don't, simply go back through your placements and make sure you included all 12 placements and gave 2 points to the Sun, Moon, Ascendant, and Midheaven.

Step 5

ANALYZE YOUR UNIQUE BLEND

Now take a look at your totals.

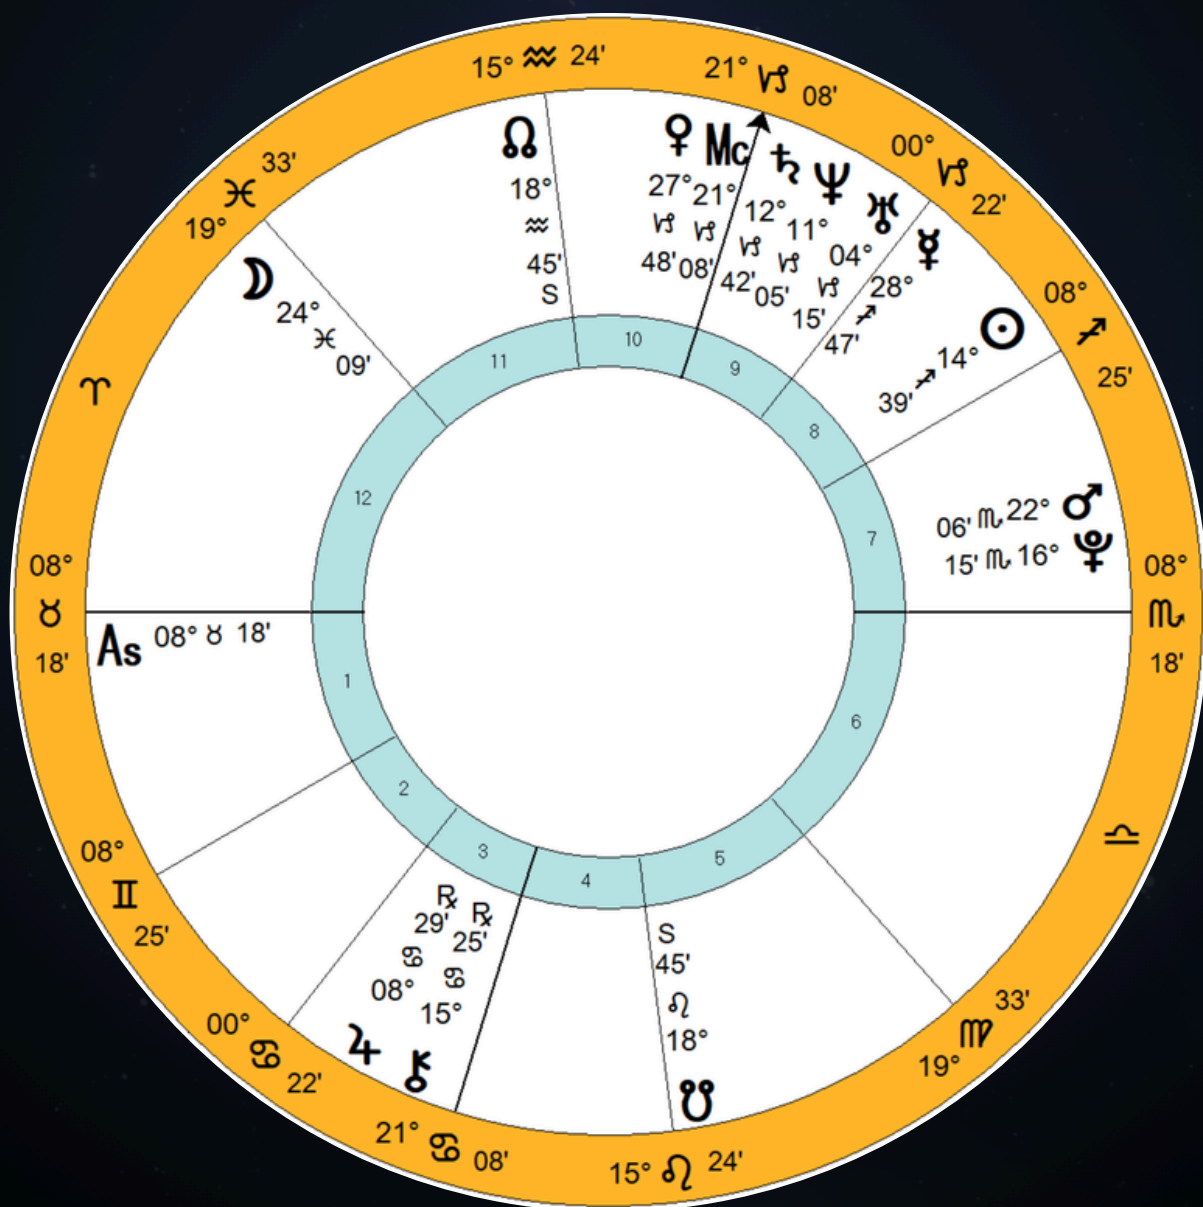

Which element has the most points? Which has the fewest? Are two or more elements nearly equal?

This is your Elemental Signature, the unique blend of Fire, Earth, Air, and Water emphasized in your birth chart.

There is no ideal score and no need for all four elements to be evenly represented.

Your numbers simply give you another way to understand which elemental qualities may come most naturally to you and which you may want to explore more consciously.

		 FIRE	 EARTH	 AIR	 WATER
	SUN	SAG 2
	MOON				PIS 2
	ASC		TAU 2

	MARS				SCO 1
	JUPITER				CAN 1
	SATURN		CAP 1
	URANUS		CAP 1
	NEPTUNE		CAP 1
	PLUTO				SCO 1
	SUM	3	8	0	5

WHAT DOES THIS TELL US?

In this example, Earth is the most strongly represented element, suggesting that its qualities may feel especially familiar or accessible. Water also has a strong presence, while Fire is less emphasized and Air isn't represented within the placements we're using.

Remember, a lower score doesn't mean you're missing an element or its qualities. Your Elemental Signature simply gives you a starting point for noticing which qualities may come naturally and which you might choose to explore and cultivate more consciously.

Reflecting on your
ELEMENTS

Now that you know your Elemental Signature, take a moment to notice what stands out.

Which element is most strongly represented?
Which is least? Does your elemental makeup reflect how you experience yourself, or did something surprise you?

Remember, more isn't necessarily better, and less doesn't mean you're lacking something.

Your Elemental Signature is simply an invitation to become more conscious of your relationship with each element and explore how its qualities might support you.

Use the prompts below to explore all four elements, or begin with the one you're most curious about cultivating.

FIRE

ARIES · LEO · SAGITTARIUS

What makes me feel most alive, energized, or inspired?

Where in my life am I being called to act more courageously?

What desire or creative impulse have I been wanting to follow?

Where could I give myself permission to take up more space, express myself, or shine?

What would help me tend my inner Fire without burning myself out?

EARTH

TAURUS · VIRGO · CAPRICORN

What helps me feel grounded, steady, and supported?

What in my life is asking for more patience, consistency, or care?

*What am I currently trying to bring into form?
What is one practical step I can take to nurture what I'm creating?*

Where might slowing down help me become more present to what is already growing?

AIR

GEMINI · LIBRA · AQUARIUS

Where in my life could I benefit from more curiosity or openness?

Is there a conversation I'm ready to have or a connection I'd like to deepen?

What new information, perspective, or idea might help me see more possibilities?

Where could I create more space rather than immediately needing an answer?

Who or what am I curious to connect with, learn from, or exchange ideas with?

WATER

CANCER · SCORPIO · PISCES

How easy is it for me to listen to and honor what I'm feeling?

Where might my feelings be giving me important information right now?

*What is my intuition quietly guiding me toward?
Where am I being invited to soften, receive, or trust rather than push?*

What would it look like to move with what is unfolding rather than needing to know the entire path?

Bringing it into BALANCE

After reflecting, ask yourself:

Which element feels most natural to me?

Which element am I most curious to develop a deeper relationship with?

What qualities of that element would support me most right now?

What is one simple way I can consciously invite more of those qualities into my life?

Your elemental makeup may remain the same, but your relationship with the elements can continue to grow and evolve.
