Dear ASTROLOGY LOVER

Electional astrology is an ancient tradition and a practical tool for choosing when to take action.

It's based on a fascinating idea: just as people have birth charts, the things we begin have their own astrological signatures, too. And by paying attention to the planetary conditions surrounding a particular moment, we can make more intentional choices about when to launch, create, commit, or take an important step forward.

This free preview of our Magic Dates 2027 Guide is designed to introduce you to the art of cosmic timing.

Inside, you'll discover a month-by-month overview of the astrological opportunities and challenges of 2027, along with a selection of auspicious dates and practical guidance to help you begin exploring electional astrology for yourself.

It is all about working smarter, leveraging the clock, and making sure the cosmic weather is on your side so your efforts flourish and carry across the finish line.

And this is just the beginning!

Our complete Magic Dates 2027 Guide takes you even further, with a much more extensive collection of carefully selected dates throughout the year, including guidance on what each moment is best suited for and what activities may be better saved for another time.

Think of this preview as your invitation to discover what's possible when you begin working with the cosmic currents rather than against them.

Your Personal Guide to the Electional Astrology Calendar

THE ART OF DIVINE TIMING

Ready to dive into the world of Electional Astrology? This isn't just a calendar; it's your personal cosmic planner, helping you align your life with the stars. Let's break down how to use this magical tool, especially in harmony with your own natal chart.

DECODING THE DATES

Each date on this calendar is like a special key, unlocking the best times for specific activities. For example:

Claim What's Yours // MARS IN SCORPIO
SEPTEMBER 23 → NOVEMBER 4, 2026
Best around 4pm

This tells you that from September 23 to November 4, the energy is ripe for hard work and focus, thanks to Mars in Scorpio. Advanced tip: When the time is right, that's your golden hour to really harness this energy!

HOW TO USE THE RECOMMENDATIONS

Activity Suggestions: Each entry provides suggestions on what the period is good for. In our example above, it's ideal for single-project focus, starting new workout routines, or tasks requiring sustained effort.

Good For & Not Good For: These sections give you a quick glance at the most and least favorable activities during this time. For instance, it's good for labor, health, career, and research, but not ideal for partnerships or family-focused activities.

Picking the Best Dates for You!

ALIGNING WITH YOUR PERSONAL CHART

While the calendar provides general guidance, aligning these periods with your personal astrological chart can enhance the effectiveness. For example, if Scorpio is a significant sign in your chart, the "Focused Drive" period might be especially potent for you.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION

1. Identify Your Goal: What do you want to achieve? Is it starting a new project, focusing on health, or advancing your career?
2. Find the Right Period: Look for a time frame on the calendar that aligns with your goal. Use the "Good For" section as a guide.
3. Plan Your Action: Once you've identified the best period, plan to initiate or focus on your activity during this time.

TIPS FOR SUCCESS

1. Be Flexible: Astrology offers guidance, but it's important to remain adaptable to life's unpredictability.
2. Combine with Intuition: Use the calendar as a tool, but also trust your instincts and personal judgment.
3. Reflect and Adjust: After using the calendar, reflect on your experiences and adjust your approach as needed.

Modes & Elements

ELEMENTS

Fire Signs (Aries, Leo, Sagittarius): Ideal for actions requiring literal fire, heat, or excitement. They are also suitable for discovery, messaging, and beautification.

Earth Signs (Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn): Optimal for matters concerning the material world, such as buying and selling land and other goods or building projects.

Air Signs (Gemini, Libra, Aquarius): Apt for actions involving air, like changing air filters or sailing, and also excellent for studying and communication.

Water Signs (Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces): Perfect for actions relating to water and healing, be it literal, emotional, or relational.

MODES

Cardinal Signs (Cancer, Aries, Libra, Capricorn): Good for urgent actions that don't need to last. They "move" events along but are not ideal for long-lasting endeavors.

Fixed Signs (Leo, Scorpio, Aquarius, Taurus): These are the workhorses—ideal for actions requiring a slow, steady pace. Use these for long-term projects.

Mutable Signs (Virgo, Sagittarius, Pisces, Gemini): These are best for routine, repetitive actions, and not ideal for one-off events like starting a business.

Lunar Phases

THE WAXING MOON

The Waxing Phase (from the New Moon to the Full Moon) is all about growth, expansion, and initiation. As the Moon gains light, it carries a building energy that is perfect for starting new ventures, launching projects, and planting seeds for future gains.

If your goal requires momentum, visibility, or building something from the ground up, picking an election during the waxing period gives your initiative that extra forward pull.

THE WANING MOON

The Waning Phase (from the Full Moon back to the New Moon) shifts the tide toward release, reflection, and quiet. While waning moons are naturally more restful, that does not mean they aren't powerful for taking action. This phase is exceptional for wrapping things up, closing chapters, and putting lingering projects to rest so you can move on cleanly.

If you have open loose ends to tie up, contracts to resolve, or baggage to clear away, the waning moon provides the exact support you need to cross the finish line.

NOVEMBER & DECEMBER

2026

As we close out the final months of 2026, the landscape offers opportunities to lay foundational groundwork before we step into 2027. The early stretch of 2027 brings a tumultuous Mars retrograde that will require us to slow down, reassess our energy, and navigate some weird and potentially awkward moments. That makes these late-2026 elections exceptionally valuable: they are your chance to build momentum, resolve past imbalances, and launch key initiatives while the skies are giving you maximum forward drive.

JANUARY 2027

January is a rather tumultuous month overall, with a Mars retrograde keeping things rough around the edges. However, it offers brief, supportive windows to find your footing. Early on, use the calming moments to slow down, get grounded in your body, and nurture your personal craft without pushing for intense physical output. As the month progresses, direct your energy toward late-night learning, exploring fresh ideas, and reaching out to assist others in need rather than launching high-visibility personal projects.

LUNAR BALM · INSPIRED CRAFT · THE EXPEDITION · DEEP RESCUE

Inspired Craft

JANUARY 17, 2027 ~8:40 PM Local Time

This first election lands in a period where things are rather tumultuous as we prepare for the Mars retrograde. While the retrograde is already active, this chart offers a very brief, nice moment amidst the chaos. It turns the focus squarely onto the self, your needs, your aspirations, and the things that really excite you. It is not about exerting physical energy or heavy labor, but rather about doing something that invigorates your inner inspiration. While work is indicated here, it points to working on your practice and the practice of your craft. That could literally be the arts, or it could be as simple as focusing on the one thing you really love doing at work, even if your job isn't creative.

GOOD FOR:

Creativity & Crafts
Finding Inspiration
Enjoyable Work Tasks

NOT GOOD FOR:

Physical Labor
High-Exertion Tasks
Strategizing

FEBRUARY 2027

February can feel like a challenging stretch where astrological support is scarce, but it provides a strategic bridge for problem-solving. This month is best used for practical realignment and sorting through heavy workloads. Focus your morning hours on connecting with peers, delegating tasks, re-prioritizing responsibilities, and taking serious commitments thoughtfully. Mid-month opens up a fantastic, collaborative space for group study, business travel, and working together toward shared goals through steady, diligent effort.

MAKING DO · COLLABORATIVE LEADERSHIP

Collaborative Leadership

FEBRUARY 13, 2027 ~11:48 AM Local Time

This election provides a really solid, supportive environment in the middle of an otherwise tumultuous astrological month. It is fantastic for group projects, study, relocations, and collective business trips where you are traveling to meet several different people. It also carries strong support for taking on a leadership role, not in a hierarchical way, but in a spirit of working together in true collaboration.

It is less about pure pleasure or surface relationships and much more about finding a deeper kind of beauty through diligent, shared effort.

GOOD FOR:

Business Trips & Travel
Group Study & Shared Projects
Collaborative Iniciatives

NOT GOOD FOR:

Romantic Indulgence
Hedonistic Leisure
Unilateral Decisions

MARCH 2027

March brings a shift from careful risk management into dynamic reinvigoration. Early in the month, focus on bold visions while ensuring any foundational risks in your plans are thoroughly accounted for. As Aries season kicks in, a long period of sluggishness comes to a definitive close, delivering a major burst of momentum. Use the latter half of the month to chase after inspiring pursuits, get noticed, and brainstorm wild, out-there ideas that you can refine into golden gems down the road.

BOLD VISION · FUEL UP! · A NOVEL PERSPECTIVE · JUICY

APRIL 2027

April serves as a powerful month for wrapping up open issues and putting your best foot forward. The early part of the month is good for bringing recent troubles to a clean, final close, seeking expert advice, resolving legal matters, and making return trips home. Shortly after, the energy pivots toward personal presence and exaltation. It becomes a great time for pitching proposals, delivering presentations, and communicating ideas that position you in the best possible light for long-term gain.

MAY 2027

May is a month built for deliberate strategy, comfort, and steady long-term launches. The initial weeks favor forward planning, document drafting, and working through complex logistics while pacing yourself. Mid-month brings a classic, pleasurable window ideal for hosting gatherings, dating, and letting others carry the heavy lifting. As the month wraps up, leverage the strong, grounded momentum to launch major, long-term business ventures, educational projects, or reselling transactions that are built to stand the test of time.

THE FIRST PASS · RESELLING · SOCIAL PLEASURES · SOLID FOUNDATIONS

JUNE 2027

June centers on community, celebration, and expanding your reach. The first half of the month offers a choice between wrapping up completed efforts or launching new initiatives. Early on, focus on throwing celebratory wrap parties and honoring work already accomplished. As the month progresses, shift your focus to active networking, building fresh connections, and hosting grand opening events. Just keep a close watch on your finances throughout the month, as party and event budgets can easily overflow.

CHEERS! · SOCIAL BUTTERFLIES

JULY 2027

July mixes targeted group action with clear, unimpeded communication. Early in the month, energy is best spent uniting with others to tackle big, value-driven issues, law, or community advocacy. A brief, highly favorable window open mid-month provides clear skies to read, write, sign documents, and execute commercial deals with confidence. Use the remainder of July to rebrand existing assets, refresh your public presentation, and focus on renewing projects rather than starting completely from scratch.

FOR THE GREATER GOOD · THE SECOND PASS · REFRESH · GENEROUS LEADERSHIP

AUGUST 2027

August is packed with high visibility, creative showcases, and maximum productivity. The early to mid-part of the month is ideal for seeking favors from figures in power, putting on bold creative shows, and celebrating local community wins. Mid-to-late August shifts into a powerful productivity-maxxing stretch. Use the tail end of the month to organize your physical space, refine operational systems, execute multi-step writing projects, and travel for detailed work and exploration.

LOCAL SPECTACLES · PRODUCTIVITY MAXXING · REFINED CRAFTSMANSHIP

SEPTEMBER 2027

September focuses on shared effort, civil mediation, and deep, resilient work. Early in the month, lean on team energy to start fitness regimens, build endurance, or rally behind a meaningful cause. Mid-month provides excellent leverage for navigating tough contractual terms, mediating disputes civilly, and tackling hard, complex research or non-profit initiatives that others might avoid. Wrap up the month by settling tense business arrangements, engaging in conscious decoupling, or gracefully concluding ongoing contracts.

UNOBSTRUCTED · CONSTRUCTIVE CRITICISM · ROLLED SLEEVES
CONSCIOUS DECOUPLING

OCTOBER 2027

October brings a dual focus on cause-driven fundraising and deep, private intimacy. The first week of the month acts as a magnet for securing third-party funding and drawing financial support to altruistic, humanitarian causes. As the month unfolds, the energy shifts inward toward personal connection. It offers a prime opportunity to give past constructive relationship dynamics a second chance, explore deep desires with a partner, and focus on intimacy in a private, supportive setting.

ALTRUISTIC CAPITAL · SECOND CHANCES

NOVEMBER 2027

November provides a rich mix of quiet insight, protected rest, and decisive action. The first half of the month is built for therapy, self-reflection, and carving out undisturbed quiet time for self-care, spa visits, and relaxation. Around mid-month, a strong, multi-purpose opening supports broadcasting, local outings, and resetting daily routines. The month finishes with intense, focused energy, making the final stretch ideal for pushing ongoing, long-term projects across the finish line.

INTO THE UNDERWORLD · CLEANSED · WORDMONGER · THE FINAL PUSH
SHOW 'EM WHAT YOU GOT · PROBLEM SOLVED

DECEMBER 2027

December is an action-packed, highly productive month for closing out the year. Early December features a standout business window perfect for launching creative publications, releasing major commercial projects, and generating widespread recognition. Mid-month favors real estate dealings, home searches, and upgrading your physical health habits. You will have all the drive and operational efficiency needed to cross every T and dot every I before the new year, provided you build in dedicated rest to recover.
